MINISTER Rev John McCutcheon
Tel: 01292 861641

As far as good weather is concerned, Summer seems to have been quite sporadic for those of us who have been unable to travel to sunnier climes or even had the opportunity of spending a couple of days in the heatwave that many experienced South of the border.

That said, when the sun and good weather have appeared, it has once again enabled us to fully enjoy and appreciate the beauty of the surroundings that are all around us.

It can be easy to fail to appreciate everything that is around us, and of all the people that God has brought into our lives. Sometimes we can even be guilty of failing to appreciate the ongoing presence of God in our lives.

However, the Good News for all of us is that even when we are forgetful, God never forgets us, and He never forgets the promises that have been passed through the generations that apply to us today just as much as they applied to those who originally heard these promises for themselves.

No matter what season we may be in, both climatically and spiritually, may we always be appreciative of the things we have, especially when we witness everything that is going on in the world; may we never forget God's ongoing presence in our lives; and may we always be mindful of all those around us, friend and family alike, who God has brought into our lives, all of whom give us the lives we have.

As always, it is a pleasure being your minister and this is something I never take for granted. If I can be of assistance with anything at all (well at least anything that I am qualified to assist you with!!) please feel free to get in touch with me by phone or email; details of which are in the magazine.

REMEMBRANCE SUNDAY

Our Remembrance Day service will be held at Dalmilling Church on Sunday 9th November at 10:00am.

At approximately 10:50am we will then gather at Whitletts War Memorial for a short act of remembrance with prayers, silence and laying of wreaths.

UPDATE ON PRESBYTERY PLAN

It had been hoped, in fact it was greatly anticipated that the Presbytery meeting in June would see the Presbytery plan being modified to allow ourselves and Newton Wallacetown-Lochside to begin making arrangements to go into a Union which would be part of a new Ayr North Parish.

Unfortunately, this didn't happen. However, the Kirk Sessions of St Quivox and Newton Wallacetown-Lochside did meet with the Presbytery Clerk and Graham McWilliams, the Convener of the Mission Planning Committee, who has the responsibility for pulling together the various Presbytery plans of the six former Presbyteries that now make up the Presbytery of the South West.

I also met with the Presbytery Clerk on a one-to-one basis as well, in relation to moving things forward.

On the positive side, they were both greatly encouraged by the unity and willingness of the two Kirk Sessions to move everything forward. We have also carried out the couple of things that they asked us to do, so to a certain extent we are ready to take things forward, again. We are just waiting for the green light to do so.

We are also hopeful that we can move forward as One, so that all the churches in North Ayr will be involved (St Quivox, Newton Wallacetown-Lochside and St James).

Whilst we are disappointed that things didn't quite work out the way we had been led to believe they would in June, we know that the inevitable has just been delayed and not postponed or abandoned.

It is always worth reminding ourselves that dissolution, or permanent closure, has been a reality for St Quivox over the last 18 months or so. At least now we are looking forward to being part of a bigger worshipping community, with all the benefits that this brings with it, as I'm sure everyone who has attended the many joint services we have shared with Newton Wallacetown-Lochside, will concur with, especially the services we had through the month of July.

UPDATE ON PRESBYTERY PLAN PART 2

Just to add a bit of clarity and perhaps reassurance in relation to the building at Dalmilling; whilst the main place of worship will be at Newton Wallacetown, Dalmilling will still be used by the various user groups in the meantime, and will still be available for funerals, weddings and school assembles if required.

The only basic change is, that there will not be any Sunday morning worship taking place.

In the short term our user groups shouldn't see any difference. That said, however, the Kirk Sessions of both churches have agreed to review everything within the new united charge, within 12-18 months of the Union taking place.

I also want to remind members of the church that all of this will only happen after a vote has taken place within the various churches to agree to the Union. This will happen after a Sunday service at some point in the future once everything has been ironed out and we know exactly what we are asking you to agree or disagree (as may be the case) to, and Presbytery agree with our plans. Everyone will be kept informed.

The date of voting etc will be scheduled by Presbytery as this is something that they are responsible for.

Having already taken part in a few services at Newton Wallacetown we knew we would receive a warm welcome when we worshipped there for the whole of July. We were not disappointed, after all we were amongst friends, and I mean that literally. Personally, I already knew people from Lochside and Newtown Wallacetown and I'm sure it was the same for others.

In the four weeks we were at Newton Wallacetown the services were all different. The first week was a Communion Service done in the traditional way with the bread and wine being passed along the rows. After covid our numbers were so few that we now serve from the front of the church with members coming up to the table.

Another week there was a children's address. This involved an origami type demonstration of paper folding to highlight the points being made by the leader. It's been a long time since we had any children in church so this was a nice change.

One week a video was shown of young people from Newton Wallacetown who had attended a Christian Outreach Camp. They obviously had a great time and told us of their highlights of the event.

Unfortunately, I made the mistake one week of being on the inside of a row. What with taller people in front and a pillar obstructing my view of the screen I was having to jook about to see the words. My antics were noticed, and I was encouraged to move along to a spot where I could see and also offered a hymn book if required.

My thanks to everyone because I do enjoy singing in church.

So we are now back home, still travelling, for the moment between Dalmilling and Auchincruive. It is now only a few short weeks before Auchincruive will see its last service on Sunday 21st September. A sad day for all of our members. However with falling numbers throughout the country we have to move forward to a future with fewer buildings supporting smaller congregations.

There are a few trips down memory lane in this printed version of the magazine. A fuller tribute will appear in the web edition sometime in September.

WHISPERS

The man whispered, "God speak to me"
And a meadow lark sang.
But the man did not hear.

So the man yelled, "God speak to me."
And the thunder rolled across the sky.
But the man did not listen.

The man looked around and said, "God let me see you."
And a star shone brightly.
But the man did not see.

And the man shouted, "God show me a miracle."
And a life was born.
But the man did not notice.

So the man cried out in despair, "Touch me God,
and let me know you are here."
Whereupon God reached down and touched the man.

The family history of Rev. William McQuhae – Minister at Auchincruive during the time of Richard Oswald.

Often, family history is just a list of names, yet when my father-in-law looked into my family tree he found an individual who has a mention in a Rabbie Burns poem, who wrote a book called 'Difficulties Which Attend The Practice Of Religion', a man who ministered at Auchincruive Church for 59 years and his son after him for 36, and whose children had links with the East India Company and Jamaica. One of his grand-daughters, Rose, who was born in India married James Tobin Bush, who on closer research was descended – via kings, emperors, bishops and a saint – from Charlemagne!

William McQuhae was born in 1737 in Wigtown and was the son of a Bailie – David McQuhae. As a young man William tutored David and John Boswell, brothers of the famous writer James Boswell. William studied divinity at Glasgow University and became Minister at Auchincruive Church in 1763. He was known to the poet Robert Burns, and the poem 'The Holy Tulzie' is about a parish boundary dispute between two 'Auld Licht' ministers. Other ministers became involved, and all were satirised by Burns. Of William he said: "An' that curs'd rascal ca'd McQuhae," and: "McQuhae's pathetic, manly sense." – a less scathing account than of some others!

William was of 'New Licht' persuasion and in 1785 his book was published. It seems that he became a trusted member of the clergy since in 1805 he was offered the position of Moderator of the Church of Scotland. He turned it down (the only person to have ever done so!) – perhaps because it would involve travelling and he had many children at home!

He had seven children with Elizabeth Park, although three died young. One daughter, Charles, married the owner of a plantation in Jamaica when she was 50 years of age, and a son, Peter, served in the Royal Navy and died in Kingston, Jamaica of yellow fever. My ancestor, William (Junior) was a soldier in India, dying there in 1824 leaving six children. Sadly, my family residing in India did not live long lives as did their Scotland dwelling ancestors, and three generations of children were left orphans.

William married Mary Laurie after the death of his first wife and they had eight more children – one of whom, Stair became Minister at Auchincruive Church immediately after William. You can see both their names on a large memorial in the churchyard. 'D.D.' refers to 'Doctor of Divinity' – awarded to William by the University of St. Andrews. When William McQuhae died he was Father of the Synod, and the date was 1st March 1823 – the 59th anniversary of his ordination.

My thanks to my Father-in-law, Lawrence Downey for his diligent research, and to Rev. McCutcheon, Catherine and John who showed me around the church on my recent visit.

Vicki Downey

This is just a wee bit of info re. when I attended St Quivox as a child.

I am from New Cumnock, now living in Cumnock, and I enjoyed holidaying each year in Auchincruive with my aunt and uncle, Agnes and Tom Flynn. They lived in 1 Gibbsyard, now strangely enough the actual Clocktower Cafe! (I thankfully therefore get to go back regularly to a most amazing time in my life.)

Most Sundays that she could manage her hip issues, my aunt and I used to walk up the narrow road to the church. I specifically remember the lovely long walk, lined with trees, slightly uphill, usually in the hot summer sunshine. If he wasn't working my uncle would drive us home afterwards.

Once inside the cool church my aunt and I loved to sit upstairs in the Auchincruive Gallery, (on a good hip day), or middle of downstairs, always facing the pulpit.

I mainly remember the minister as the Rev. Bob Brown, though I am sure there was another man sometimes too. I don't remember much about the actual services, except that I loved the singing and prayers, and I enjoyed the stillness and calm.

After the service, when my aunt was outside talking to the minister or her friends, I remember watching what was going on at Prestwick Airport. There was a great view of the airport from the grounds of the church. (I was always so fascinated with aeroplanes and how they stayed up in the sky, and always loved watching them take off and land. Staying each summer in Auchincruive meant I also got to hear just how loud they sounded whilst trying to sleep! I know back then there were a lot of Canadian flights especially.)

I loved being in the church with my aunt Agnes, and was very saddened to hear of the impending closure of such a lovely church, one which holds a lot of special memories for me.

I do hope to make one last visit, for my aunt's memory and for myself.

With much fondness,

This photo was sent by Fiona, daughter of the couple signing the register.

It's a really good photo of Rev Lyle Wilson. I remember him from attending Sunday School and visits he made to my house.

It was on one of these visits that he asked me to help out at the Sunday School which I did for many years.

Celebrating Our Amazing Volunteers!

We were proud to see seven of our dedicated volunteers honoured at this year's South Ayrshire Volunteer Awards (SAVA), held at Ayr Town Hall.

Bronze Awards (1–5 years of service): Gina, Jean, and Susan

Gold Awards (10 – 15 years of service): Pat, Donna, Kaya, and Caroline

It was a fantastic evening celebrating the incredible contribution of volunteers across South Ayrshire. A huge thank you and well done to our amazing team – your commitment makes such a difference!

Teddy Bear Tots Summer Adventures

In June, Teddy Bear Tots enjoyed our much-anticipated annual trip to the Heads of Ayr Farm Park! Our tots and their families had a fantastic day out, complete with a delicious picnic, feeding the animals, and plenty of fun at the play park.

Thanks to generous funding from The Health & Social Care Partnership, we've been able to stay open throughout the summer. This has allowed us to welcome both our tots and their older siblings, strengthening our bonds with families and creating a warm, supportive community. It's been a wonderful success!

Wild Rhythm – Music, Connection & Community

Wild Rhythm continues to thrive each week, bringing together participants to enjoy great music, refreshments, and warm friendship. It's not just a highlight for those who attend — it also offers a valuable opportunity for carers to meet, share experiences, and connect with one another.

We love getting to know our participants better each week and discovering new ways to keep everyone engaged, entertained, and included.

The energy and joy in the Wilson Hall is what Wild Rhythm is all about!

Community Corner

Our weekly warm space, run in partnership with Whitletts Vics in the Community, continues every Wednesday in the Wilson Hall. We enjoy good conversation, delicious food, and a variety of activities.

Over the past few months, we've welcomed many visitors keen to learn more about our work — including the Information & Advice Hub, our friends from Irvine Old Parish Church, and the South Ayrshire Disability Team.

Harbour Ayrshire Support

We were delighted to receive Tesco vouchers from our friends at Harbour Ayrshire, which enabled us to support families and individuals most in need.

Thanks to their generosity, we were able to help 14 families and provide food for our toddler trip to the Farm Park. We are very grateful for this valuable support.

Funding Bids

We were very grateful to receive £700 from the Health and Social Care Partnership in May. This funding has helped us continue running throughout the summer—keeping our tots group free of charge and providing healthy snacks and breakfast for our families.

In July, we were fortunate to secure £3,000 from the Robertson Trust's Wee Grants Scheme and £1,000 from the Arnold Clark Community Fund.

These generous contributions will go a long way in helping us continue our work in the community, ensuring our events remain free or low cost for everyone.

by Brown Owl Lise Whittle

1st Dalmilling Brownies joined 3rd Alloway Brownies once again for their annual Brownie Pack Holiday at Nether Auchendrane Girlguiding Activity Centre in Alloway. The theme this year was 'Around The World'.

The Brownies arrived on the Friday evening and settled into their dorms. After a welcome pow-wow and a Brownie sing-song, everyone signed placemats and had a group photograph. Then we did some craft activities including flag fridge magnets saying 'Hello' in different languages; a penpot holder covered with stamps from countries all around the world; and a charm brooch with a choice of travel charms. Then everyone was given a passport and boarding ticket to join a 'cruise ship' to sail to China overnight. For each country we visited, they received a flag sticker to put in their passport. We had a snack of filled rolls, hot chocolate and marshmallows, everyone got into their PJs and went off to their 'cabins', where they all fell straight to sleep (no, that last part didn't happen!)

The next morning everyone woke up in China, and headed outside for Tai Chi exercises. After a delicious breakfast including Cook Owl Janis's very popular freshly home-made pancakes with lots of delicious toppings, everyone tidied up – the Brownies were in three rotating 'work parties' to clear the tables & do the washing up, or clean the windows, or clean the bathroom! Then we went off outside to climb along the 'Great Wall of China' at the back of the building (wooden log balancing zig-zag trail), a Treasure Hunt, a table tennis tournament, and Chinese chalking on the paving slabs. After prawn cracker snack, it was time to take the hot air balloon to Africa – we played parachute games for this and decorated ceramic balloon mobiles. We went to Ethiopia for lunch and had wraps with a choice of fillings served on a huge brass platter, which represented the unleaven bread and simple fillings shared by Ethiopian family groups from one large plate.

After lunch everyone 'flew' 1st Class to Australia, and had a rest time on their 'reclining seats' (bunks) during their 'flight'. Once in Australia, we played 'Pin the Tail on the Kangaroo' and 'Eat an Anzac Biscuit into the shape of Australia'! You could try doing that yourself!

Next we flew to France and hiked over the Pyrenees Mountains while singing 'I love to go a-wandering along the mountain track ...' . We then took the train to EuroDisney – unfortunately it was raining so we couldn't go on the playpark outside, so we played indoor games instead including building the Eiffel Tower with Jenga blocks, 'Spoons' card game, bingo and Uno.

Then we received train tickets to take the train to Italy for tea, and had pizza and ice-cream with lots of scrummy toppings. After that we rowed a boat to USA singing 'Row, row, row your boat', and we decorated frisbees. Then we had to swim to Hawaii where we had a game of limbo and then an indoor campfire singsong (still raining outside). While still in Hawaii, it was time to get into PJs and bring sleeping bags and pillows into the hall for a movie – 'Lilo & Stitch' - while munching on popcorn and marshmallows. Then it was time to take an overnight hot air balloon flight to Spain and everyone floated off to bed - and everyone really did fall asleep quite quickly this time!

On Sunday morning we woke up in Spain and did Spanish yoga exercises outside. After French Toast for breakfast (!) everyone started packing up their things, and we had a chance to buy our holiday souvenirs from the gift shop! Then it was time for a Spanish Scavenger Hunt finding things outdoors starting with the letters S P A I N. Then we flew to Ireland for an Irish Quiz and to taste some Irish soda bread – delicious! After hotdogs and a Leftovers Lunch, we swam across the sea back to Scotland!!

We ended our holiday with 'Reflections' about our travels over the weekend. Everyone received a certificate, photograph and lots of badges, and gifts were given to the Leaders. After a farewell song, it was home time and big hugs with their families.

Thanks are due to all the Leaders for all their effort and time in putting together such a fun-filled Pack Holiday, and to the parent & grandparent helpers who came early to help clean the Centre.

A huge thank you to all the volunteer Owls, and for the support and encouragement from everyone at the Church. Dalmilling is in great need of more volunteer Leaders, and we are especially looking for a couple of adult Leaders to restart the Rainbows (age 5-7) and also Guides (age 10-14) as we have girls enquiring and wanting to join. A programme is already available, and full training and support will be given. If you or anyone you know might be interested, please contact Brownie leader Lise Whittle at dalmillingbrownies@hotmail.com or District Commissioner Janis Meredith at Janis@ggas.org.uk

Around the world in 2 days with the Brownies.

UPDATE ON FUTURE SERVICES

Due to the great success of the many joint services that have taken place between ourselves and NWT-Lochside, especially the summer services, and in order to maintain the momentum, and to also keep in mind that we will be permanently worshipping at NWT once everything is agreed, it has been agreed by myself and NWT's Session Clerk, subject to KS agreement to have more joint services. The dates are as follows:

Sep 14th NWT 11 am

Oct 5th NWT 11am, Communion Service

Oct 26th NWT 11 am, Minister on annual leave

Nov 2nd NWT 11 am, Minister on annual leave

November 23rd— Jan 4th (inclusive) NWT 11 am

The Communion service in Auchincruive in September will also in all likelihood be the last communion service in St Quivox as we move to aligning our Communion services with NWT. Thereafter the December communion service will be in NWT at 11 am.

The December 14th service will have Dunaskin Doon Band in attendance. These services are always keenly anticipated at NWT, so that will be a good service to be part of as we start preparing for Christmas (he wrote, and it's still July at the time of writing!!). There will also be a soup and sweet lunch afterwards.

Of course, this might all change and the Union will be fulfilled prior to this, in which case all the services will be carried out at NWT at the above times. We will strive to keep you informed of all things as they happen.

If you have been attending church, you will notice that flowers are once more decorating both the sanctuaries. After the service, these flowers are given to people who are ill, been in hospital, are housebound, or have been bereaved. They are sometimes given to celebrate good news or birthdays.

If you would like to commemorate a special date by donating flowers, speak to Rosemary if the date falls on a day we worship at Auchincruive, or Pat if it is Dalmilling.
